UGCNET is a national level examination conducted by the Council for Upgradation and Maintenance of Academic Standards (CUMAS) for the purpose of recruitment to the post of Assistant Professor in the field of Mass Communication. The examination is held twice a year, once in June and once in December. The syllabus for UGCNET is divided into two parts, Part I and Part II. Part I covers the basic concepts and theories of Mass Communication, while Part II covers the advanced concepts and theories. The examination is held in a computerized mode and the questions are asked in a multiple choice format. The total marks for the examination are 100, with 50 marks for Part I and 50 marks for Part II. The duration of the examination is 2 hours. The candidates are required to bring their own writing materials and a valid ID card to the examination center. The results of the examination are announced on the website of the Council for Upgradation and Maintenance of Academic Standards (CUMAS).
