Our primary source was Webster's Daily Use Dictionary, published in 1934. For the historical references we used the World Book Encyclopedia and Encarta Encyclopedia. Because our language has changed much since our "Big Book" was written, and because the book's purpose is to explain "precisely how we have recovered", we believe it is important to understand what the words meant when they were written, not how they have been filtered by our society today.

The WhyteHouse is, I hope, a way to find that special phrase or saying etc. in the 2nd edition of the AA Big Book. I have provided a link in a couple of places on this page for your convenience, so you can get to the search page. It is my hope that you will find this site useful to you and our friends of "Bill W."
